As per LWV DC Candidate Forum Policy: The League reserves the right to screen questions to avoid duplication and personal attack on individuals. Questions are to address issues appropriate to that particular public office or referendum, not personalities. If the screeners do not understand the question, it will not be asked. Questions will be asked as written.

As per LWV DC Candidate Forum Guidelines: Only written questions will be accepted; they can be submitted in advance. League members, in advance of presentation by the moderator, will screen the questions in order to eliminate redundancies and inappropriate questions. Questions are to address issues appropriate to the particular public office. If the screeners do not understand the question, it will not be asked. Questions will be asked as written.

Additional helpful information:

- Two people will work as a team to screen questions.
- It is preferable for at least one of the screeners to have previous experience as a screener.
- Screeners will sort the questions into groups related to similar topics. They will forward questions to the moderator with every attempt to present questions on a wide variety of topics. A question that is a follow-up to another question may be asked immediately following the original question.
- Questions that are redundant, inappropriate, aimed at one candidate only, have nothing to do with the particular public office, cannot easily be understood or are illegible will be set aside, but not discarded.
- A LWV member will type all questions asked and not asked for the LWV files and a copy will be sent to candidates with their thank you note.
