

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF DOOR COUNTY

May 2017 Member Newsletter

May promises to be a busy and significant month for our chapter. Check out the events our allies have planned (below). LWVDC is coming off an incredible program in Baileys Harbor on April 22, the "ALICE in Door County" morning. Keynote speaker Charlene Mouille, executive director of United Way, together with five experts from our area, opened eyes to the struggle of working poor that too-often is unnoticed by the majority of residents. This Door County Pulse article gives you a thorough understanding of who contributed to our understanding. The Eileen Bohn Speaker Series funding made Ms Mouille's participation possible. Thank you to organizer Susan Kohout, and the LWVDC board members for their time and effort for ALICE.

LWVDC Annual Meeting May 12 at Liberty Square, Egg Harbor

The program by LWV Lake Michigan Region regarding the threats to the health of our beautiful lake could not be more germane. Krista Grimm from LWVLMR is traveling from the Chicago area to bring us the latest on their work and inviting our chapter to join the effort. Information about the entrée choices, together with the evening's schedule, is on the flyer on page 2. Members will elect a new board, approve the proposed budget, and discuss program plans for 2017-18.

Dinner reservations are requested by Monday, May 1. If you prefer to come for the program only, chairs will be set up at the back of the dining area at Liberty Square.

- 7:00pm Program by Krista Grimm, League of Women Voters Lake Michigan Region

The Great Lakes Restoration Initiative (GLRI) is a federal program that has enjoyed bipartisan support during an era when the political parties find little to agree on. The President proposes eliminating the program in favor of other budget priorities. What are the critical threats facing Lake Michigan and the Great Lakes? What impact has the GLRI had? Is this EPA program still needed? Come and hear the perspective of our colleagues in the LWV Lake Michigan Region

Dinner Choices:

1. Pasta Marinara (vegetarian, gluten-free)
$22.00
2. Italian Pot Roast with red potatoes
$28.00
3. Chicken Alfredo over Fettucini Pasta
$28.00
